Kenneth Charles Rabedeau

July 2, 2016

Kenneth C. Rabedeau, 73, of Fort Myers, passed away at home surrounded by family. Ken was born July 18, 1942 in Detroit, MI to Kenneth J. and Frances Rabedeau. Ken is survived by his wife of 47 years, Susan, four children, eight grandchildren, his father, Kenneth J, 100 years old, of Fort Myers and two brothers. His children, Kenneth S. (wife Judy), resides in New Cumberland, PA and are the parents of six grown children. His daughter, Julie Rabedeau Booth, (husband Hunter) and two children live in St. Petersburg, FL. Son, Kevin, lives in Fort Myers. He is also survived by two brothers, Roger (wife Debbie), of Cape Coral, FL and Keith (wife MaryBeth), of Phoenix, AZ. Ken was preceded in death by his mother, Frances, of Houghton Lake, MI.

Ken was raised in Royal Oak, MI. where he met Susan, from Southfield, MI, and they married June 14, 1969. They traveled often around the country for his work and settled in Cape Coral in 1985. They moved across the river to Fort Myers in 2001. Two of his children graduated from Cape Coral High School. He loved fishing in Canada every year with family and great friends. Ken was a Gators fan and wore his orange and blue proudly. His grandchildren were the apple of his eye, and he spoiled them rotten. Ken is president of the Fort Myers Knife Club and enjoyed his knife-collecting hobby for the last three decades. His presence was larger than life, and he will be greatly missed.
